Community Prevention

Initiative of Columbus Area
United Way

Community Prevention is a voluntary program for families to partner with a Family Coach.

Community Prevention can assist with:

- Finding resources for basic needs including housing, utilities, food, and transportation.
- Parenting skills
- Life skills including employment search.
- Budgeting and money management.
- Childcare and education resources.
- Adult education and GED resources.
- Find new connections in the community.
- Building a support system to meet the family needs.
